Our Story

At Surface Studios, we believe tiles should do more than simply cover a wall or floor, they should inspire the spaces where people live and work.

Our collections are designed to bring together timeless style and modern functionality. Drawing influence from high-end interiors and natural materials, we create ranges that are aspirational yet practical, delivering the aesthetic impact designers, retailers and homeowners look for, backed by the reliability trade professionals depend on.

Crafted in Italy and across Spain, our porcelain, ceramic and glass tiles combine design-led detail, technical performance, and lasting durability. We make it simple to specify, stock, and style with confidence, helping our customers bring beautiful surfaces into everyday life.
